NEW BUSINESS

250th Celebration (Semi-Quincentennial).

The Park and Recreation Board discussed that Fleetwood Borough, including FACO, should coordinate its own "House Decoration Contest." Aaron said there could be an overall winner from both areas. The Historical Society will choose the places for the "Scavenger Hunt," and the P&R Board discussed the process for how the public could participate.

The P&R Board will ask businesses to participate in the "Fun Day" event by providing a craft table to make decorations for the "Children's Parade." The rules and prizes were discussed along with a participation gift. The discussed Trinity Bible Fellowship and Maidencreek Church participation. The "Pet Parade" discussion included Independence Day-related costumes for the dogs and prizes for best, funniest, and cutest costumes.

The "Pie Eating and Watermelon" contest will be hosted by the Lions Club.

The Park and Recreation will have a band and a DJ to coordinate with the band in between sets and the type of music they will play. They also discussed games, including cornhole, kickball, and other games. They would like the supervisors to participate in a "Dunk Tank" to raise money for the sign at the Community Park. They discussed having food trucks and the concession stand for food to raise money to cover the celebration and discussed having fireworks on Friday after the food trucks event.

Park and Recreation will reach out to the Blandon Fire Department, EMS, and the Northern Berks Regional Police Department for their involvement.
