YARD WASTE SITE

Receive access to the yard waste drop-off site by filling out BOTH the application and waiver forms which can be located on the Maidencreek Township website.

All the information for the guidelines of the Yard Waste Site is listed on the waiver document. Notably, the yard waste site is open from 7:00 am to 9:00 pm daily. Please make sure to only dispose of approved waste. The yard waste site is monitored via camera. Anyone violating the rules of the yard waste site is subject to losing access.

If you lose a keycard, replacing it is a charge of $5 in either cash or check. This fee is only required for replacements; the initial card you get is free of charge.

RESIDENTIAL CURBSIDE LEAF COLLECTION

Leaf collection will be held EVERY Monday starting November 3rd to December 1st.

Please do not bag leaves. Leaves should be piled by the side of the road by 7am. Please do not park vehicles on or in front of leaf piles. If it rains/snows road crew will pick up the next nice day.

RESIDENTIAL CURBSIDE BRUSH COLLECTION

Brush collection will be held EVERY Monday starting September 29th to October 13th.

Please do not put out the following for brush pick up: ornamental grass, garden plants (will be picked up with leaves), trees or brush with a diameter greater than 12", or anything with dirt & roots attached.

Flea Market & Craft Show

Protect Our Waterways

- If you park your car on the street, make sure there are no fluids leaking from your vehicle.
- Keep garbage cans covered to keep trash from blowing away and avoid rainwater becoming contaminated by the trash.
- Read the label when disposing of household chemicals and paints properly
- Keep raked leaves and grass clippings away from the storm drain to avoid clogging waterways
- Don't hose down sidewalks as it can get dirt in the storm drains.
